SPICE IT UP with the One of A Kind, Brand New, Shredded Rosemary and Juniper Berry Asiago Cheeses.
Your Solutions to Entertaining Quick and Easy.

January 7, 2006--Greenwich, Ct ---Ulla Nylin, founder of VOD Gourmet adds another twist to her line of gourmet cheeses, shredded Rosemary and Juniper berry Asiagos. These nutty flavored cheeses are aged for 6 months with imported Juniper berries or Rosemary.

One bite of these new Asiagos will create images in your head of a warm, twilight-lit evening in a little Italian café. These are unique and inspiring cheeses that make any dish extra special . Sprinkle it over pastas, potatoes, sauces, rice or melt in lasagnas, quiches, omelets, quesadillas and pizza.

“Our goal is to combine unique and delicious flavor combinations with the finest artisan cheeses and introduce them to consumers all over the world. This is a one of a kind product line. I am not familiar with any other cheeses like this in the market place,” explains, Nylin. “We wanted to create a premium and unique shredded cheese that could be used to spice up and create quick and easy appetizers, breads, soups, sauces, salads and entrees. Asiago is such a delicious and wonderful alternative to Parmesan and Romano cheeses that more and more people are using it in their daily lifestyle.” further explains Nylin.

These Unique Shredded cheeses are being previewed for the first time at the NASFT Fancy Food Show in San Francisco. “This is the premier trade event for the gourmet foods market. We are so excited to be introducing our new cheeses at this year’s Fancy Food Show,” states Nylin.

Ulla Nylin burst onto the gourmet cheese scene and made a splash internationally with her famous Swedish Vodka Cheeses. She uses the same process of adding flavors to the cheese as it ages. Ulla found the finest Artisan Asiago cheese makers in Wisconsin and worked with them in creating the flavor profiles of these cheeses.
